

Supplies:

7- 5x8" pieces of watercolor paper 140 lb. (nothing rough because it's too hard to letter on)
I like Fabriano hot press as well as Canson or Strathmore cold press. Arches doesn't work well because it tears eventually when you score it.

1 - 2x7" piece of watercolor paper

1- old book page 5x8"

1- 2.5x3.5 piece of watercolor paper

1- 5x8" piece of tracing paper

Green painters tape or some similar tape

Pencil

Eraser

Hole punch

A piece of satin ribbon 8"

A white uniball signo pen

Bone folder

Awl

Ruler

35" of waxed linen thread or waxed embroidery floss

A large needle with a hole large enough to accommodate your thread.

Scissors

A black size 01 micron pigma pen

Water container

Rag

Palette

Size 04 and 08 round brushes (your size 04 must come to a good point as we will be lettering with it.)

Uhu glue stick

Crayola wax crayons

Watercolor paint: I'm using sap green, pthathalo blue, ultramarine blue, quinacridone gold, quinacridone violet, cadmium red and black or paynes grey. They are M. Graham brand but you can use whatever brand you have and similar colors are okay too.

Some scrap paper (Printer paper works)

Optional:

a score board to score your paper

Any other papers or tools you like to use as you create. ie. special pens ect.
